An Update from the Field

Greetings...Our intent has been and continues to be to keep you all informed of the work that is taking place in KwaMhlanga, South Africa for the Glory of the Lord. Our family was called to the ministry in December 2004 and we have been following where the Lord leads, by faith in Christ alone, and continue seeking the Lord and His will and purposes for His Kingdom. Let us openly, honestly and humbly confess that we sin everyday and God continues to reveal how filthy even our best words and deeds are in His sight. We do not want to write this letter without acknowledging our own failures and weaknesses, because it is not us but only the Lord who is pure, blameless, perfect, Holy and faithful.

Over the course of the last 2 months we have taken time in prayer and reflection to consider what the possibilities are for our family continuing in ministry through international missions. The work that God has called us to at Mukhanyo Theological College and at Mukhanyo Community Development Centre has been an experience that has taught, shaped, refined, strengthened, developed and humbled us all for the sake of bringing Glory to the Lord. MCDC has asked our family to come back to continue the work that has been started here, serving the people of KwaNdebele and helping to achieve the building up of skills, abilities and self-confidence of the local people all for the Glory of the Lord. God has shed His light on our calling and faithfully continues to show us the footsteps of His leading. We are called into a longer commitment to international missions and are passing through doors that the Lord reveals and opens.

Currently, we are on the Mission Field and are in correspondence with All Saints PCA, our home church, Mission to the World, our sending agency and our Supporters-both friends and family. We have begun going through the process for the 2-3 year program with Mission to the World. This program allows us to continue our ministry in South Africa, at MCDC, and continue our partnership with Mission to the World, while at the same time equipping us with training and evaluation in order to arrive back on the Mission Field in a reasonable amount of time.

Once again we want to emphasize our desire to openly communicate the development of our calling while on the Mission Field and to give you an update from this side of the globe about what God is calling our family to for the future. Upon arrival in the States, on November 9, 2007, we will proceed to Mission to the World's Interview and Orientation Event from November 13-November 17. After Thanksgiving in Tennessee, with family, we will continue traveling home to Austin, Texas. At that stage, we will continue raising support in order that we will arrive back in KwaMhlanga, South Africa to continue our calling and ministry with MCDC.

Will you pray with us as we prepare to travel back to the United States and as we go through the order and process it takes to arrive back on the Mission Field? Our humble request is that you prayerfully consider how the Lord is calling you to support our family and furthermore the ministry of MCDC through the mobilization of missionary families.

Grace and Peace of Christ,

Bryan and Rebe McReynolds
